

INFORMATION SHEET ON THE PROCESSING OF PERSONAL DATA
PURSUANT TO ARTICLE 13 OF LEGISLATIVE DECREE NO. 196/2003

Dear fan,

F.C. Internazionale Milano S.p.A. (hereinafter Inter), with headquarters at Corso Vittorio Emanuele II No. 9, Milan, in its capacity of "Personal Data Holder" (hereinafter Data Holder), wishes to inform you about how the data you provided in your capacity of "Interested Party in personal data processing" (hereinafter the Interested Party) via the "InterJersey" initiative will be processed.

1. Purpose of data processing

Depending on the consent granted by the Interested Party, the data will be used for the following purposes:

- a) requirements relating to the "InterJersey" initiative;
- b) delivery of newsletters.

2. Data processing methods

The data will be processed using IT tools in a manner that complies with confidentiality and security regulations established by law.

3. Compulsory/optional provision of data

The provision of personal data for purposes relating to the "InterJersey" initiative is compulsory.

Users may choose whether or not to grant their consent for purposes relating to the delivery of newsletters.

4. Consequences of refusal to respond

As regards compulsory consent, any refusal to provide data or grant consent to the processing of such data for purposes relating to the "InterJersey" initiative, as set out in Paragraph 1, Point a), will prevent that user from participating in the initiative.

In the event that the Interested Party declines to provide their data or consent to such data being processed for purposes relating to the delivery of newsletters, as set out in Paragraph 1, Point b), no consequences will be forthcoming. However, the Interested Party will not be kept informed on initiatives of potential interest.

5. Communication and circulation of data

Within the Data Holder's organisation, the data may be processed by the departments responsible for carrying out specific processing activities (e.g. Administration, Commercial, Marketing, IT) and specifically by personnel nominated as the Responsible Party or Appointee.

As part of its activities and initiatives of a sporting, informative, cultural, social, promotional/advertising, marketing, merchandising or sponsorship nature, Inter – in its capacity of Data Holder – may communicate the personal data of the Interested Party (exclusively for the purposes for which the Interested Party has granted their consent) to subsidiary and associated companies pursuant to Article 2359 of the Italian Civil Code, affiliated companies, partner companies, sponsor companies, consultants, marketing and market research companies and other service companies (e.g. IT support, mailing, deliveries, couriers, packaging, delivery and transport of correspondence, companies and/or collaborators that carry out stadium entrance checks, football schools, hotels used by the club).

Personal data will not be made public, except as specified in regard to photographs and images.

6. Rights of the Interested Party

In accordance with Article 7 of Legislative Decree No. 196/03, the Interested Party has a right to:

- 1) obtain confirmation of the existence of personal data and information regarding him/her – even where this is not yet recorded – and their disclosure in an intelligible form;
- 2) be informed of: a) the origin of personal data and information; b) purposes and methods of data processing; c) the process followed where data is processed using electronic means; d) the identification details of the owner, the persons in charge and the representative appointed under Paragraph 4; e) the people or groups of people to whom personal data and information can be disclosed or who may come to know them in their capacity as representatives appointed in the State territory or persons in charge;

3) to obtain: a) the update, correction or – where applicable – completion of data; b) the cancellation, transformation into anonymous form or blocking of data processed in such a way that violates the law, including data and information which need not be kept in relation to the purposes for which data and information were collected or subsequently processed; c) certification that the operations under Points a) and b) – including their content – have been communicated to those to whom data and information were provided or disclosed, except where this proves to be impossible or entails a level of effort clearly disproportionate to the right being protected;

4) wholly or partially refuse: a) to allow the processing of personal data and information regarding him/her, for legitimate reasons, even where these are relevant to the aim of data collection; b) to allow the processing of personal data regarding him/her for purposes relating to the delivery of advertising or direct sales material, or for purposes relating to market research or commercial communications.

7. Data Holder and Responsible Parties

According to Article 4, Paragraph F of Legislative Decree 196/2003, the data holder is F.C. Internazionale Milano S.p.A., with registered office in Corso Vittorio Emanuele II No. 9, share capital of 15,000,000.00 EUR, registered on the Milan Companies Register (No. 80066310154).

The Responsible Party for data processing, according to Article 4, Paragraph G of Legislative Decree 196/2003 is the Head of the Office Responsible for Data Processing, In-house legal department, Corso Vittorio Emanuele II No. 9, Milan.

The subjects and companies to whom the Data Holder has entrusted the processing of the data are External Responsible Parties. Specifically,

Gravity Media LLC, 114 West 26th Street, 8th Floor, New York, New York 10001

Responsible Party for the “InterJersey” initiative. A current list of the above companies is available at F.C. Internazionale Milano S.p.A. headquarters in Milan.

For further information, please contact the Responsible Party on telephone number +39 02/77151, fax number 02/781514 or email: privacy@inter.it.